

GRAPHIC DESIGNER FOR INTERNATIONAL COMMUNICATIONS AGENCY FOR DEVELOPMENT IN PANAMA CITY

Phoenix Design Aid A/S Regional Office in Panama City

Do you have a bundle of creativity as a graphic designer? Are you passionate about creating and illustrating unique graphic design? We have an amazing group of clients, international projects and a wonderful work environment with personal development and career opportunities to offer you.

About us

Phoenix Design Aid A/S (PDAid) is an international design and communications company with expertise in graphics and digital solutions with years of experience working for the United Nations, the European Union and Non-governmental organizations (NGOs). PDAid serves the global community through an international network of representation offices in Panama City, New York and Nairobi, along with a network of trusted and qualified partners in more than 25 countries.

Our clients have a passion for fundamental causes, such as protect children's right, secure highest possible level of health and care caring for the environment. Read more about us at www.phoenixdesignaid.com.

You give life to every design project

Your job will be to provide strategic communication advice and to plan, develop and coordinate the communications strategies of different global objectives projects – in close collaboration with our project managers. Your typical responsibilities will include:

- Deliver engaging design solutions, including branding, publications, illustrations, campaigns dynamic infographics, animations and animated GIFs.
- Photo editing, cropping and photo research.
- Understand the client's needs and consider practical solutions.
- Present ideas and concepts, explaining clearly and confidently the creative work.
- Incorporate clients feedback amending designs accordingly.
- Work with other team members to deliver projects against deadlines.
- Bring innovative ideas, concepts and develop unique designs.
- Make complex and technical information in a simple and accessible language for non-technical audiences with your designs.

The world as your workplace

You will operate in an international environment. At the same time, you will have the possibility to manage exciting projects that will make a difference to a lot of people. The possibilities for personal and professional growth are great as PDAid work in a very dynamic environment with a wide range of contacts. We have plenty of room for ideas at our regional office in Panama City.

Location: In our office in Panama City or home based. Let us know your preference in your application. We are flexible!

It is essential that you can design, sketch and illustrate graphic content with various digital tools, such as Adobe Creative Cloud with emphasis on Illustrator, InDesign and ideally Photoshop and After Effects. You are a fast learner and can acquire skills quickly on your own. You have strong computer and design skills (Power Point, Adobe Photoshop, etc.) We imagine that you are flexible and have a substantial knowledge of graphic design solutions. You are fluent in spoken and written English.

Qualifications:

- Graduate level within on graphic design or equivalent experience.
- Attention to detail and accuracy.
- A minimum of 2 years of experience as graphic designer/illustrator.
- Skills in designing new material that fits its target audience.
- Self-motivated, highly organized and able to work to demanding deadlines.
- A positive and proactive attitude.
- Experience from a larger organization or corporation, or an agency background.
- Having experience from working with organizations or government authorities will be considered a great advantage.

Application and contact

Please send your CV and portfolio no later than the 20th of December 2019 via email to jerv@phoenixdesignaid.com as soon as possible – please write “Graphic Design - Panama” in the subject line. We look forward to hearing from you.